INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The following paragraph appeared in the Sixth Report (for the year 1878) of the English Dialect Society :—

“The Council have pleasure in announcing that they have completed arrangements with the Free Libraries Committee of the Corporation of Manchester for the establishment of an English Dialect Library, and the whole of the books belonging to the E.D.S. have been placed on the shelves of the Central Public Library in the old Town Hall, King Street, Manchester. To these, the dictionaries and dialect books already in the possession of the Manchester Corporation have been added. The objects and purpose of this Dialect Library were fully set forth in the Report for 1877, pp. 9-11. It is hoped that members of the E.D.S. will help to make the collection complete by the gift of books, pamphlets, cuttings, and other illustrations of dialect literature. During the continuance of the Society, its members may obtain the loan of any work on application to the Honorary Secretary. No other person will be permitted to take away any book or pamphlet from the building, but the contents will be accessible to the general public for reference.”

For the preparation of the Catalogue the Society are indebted to Mr. CHARLES W. SUTTON, the Chief Librarian of Manchester.

J. H. NODAL,

Honorary Secretary.

JANUARY, 1880.

. The asterisk [] appended to the entries denotes the works deposited by the English Dialect Society; the others have been added to the collection by the Manchester Free Libraries Committee.
